

Family Development Activities among Parents and Scholars from barangay Taptap

Last October 13, 2019 (Sunday), the parents and scholars from barangay Taptap trooped to the barangay rooftop function hall to play games, parents with their kids competing against the other team. Learning how to strategies, how to work as a team and how to listen while one is talking and how to communicate and feedback to troubleshoot – these were some of the take home skills of both parents and their children (scholars).
